To

Irene

1927 - 2012

Her love of nature, family,

and

sense of adventure,

coupled with her interest in technical matters, combined with this author's opened new worlds

Special thanks go to Irene's son, Tom, for his valuable help with early versions of this manuscript as well as his assistance with previous volumes in this series. We are also especially grateful to Blanca Gruber for her careful proof reading of portions of this book.
